THE RAILROAD AND STATE POLITICS.

Before entering upon the State campaign it might be a good idea to have the V. & T. Railroad's position in State politics clearly defined.

It is quite clear to the APPEAL that the V. & T. R. R. Co. is straining every nerve to down the Silver party next fall.

In 1892 it made a bargain with the Silver party of Ormsby and agreed to support this county's ticket with the exception of the County Commissioners, provided the Silver party would give its solid vote for Newlands. The Silver party kept its agreement and gave Newlands about 200 majority, but the V. & T. R. R. Co. either broke faith or was unable to deliver its votes. The returns show that it did not cast its vote for the Silver ticket as it agreed, and the County Commissioners whom it refused to support, were elected with the balance.

The V. & T. Company, by its mouthpiece the Enterprise, is now fighting the Silver party and proclaims a Republican high tariff to the inhabitants of a State who manufacture nothing. The Enterprise voices the views of D. O. Mills of New York who pockets in New York the dividends earned by his road in Nevada.

Now the APPEAL does not begrudge Mr. Mills the right to run his road or his politics as he sees fit, but we respectfully call his attention to the fact that if he proposes to continue his war on the party that is now fighting for Nevada's chief industry, he must not be surprised if the Silver Legislature to be elected this fall, metes out its full measure of reprisals to the V. & T. Company.

If the R. R. Company wants a fight with the Silver party to open with the campaign and close with the Legislature, it can be accommodated. The V. & T. R. R. has for years past been in the habit of asking favors of the Legislature and getting them. The APPEAL advocates no war on a railroad industry already crippled by hard times, but it believes in the propriety of refusing favors to a corporation that is everlastingly meddling with State politics and trying to boss them.

The Silver party of Nevada proposes to find out in this campaign who are its enemies, and who are its friends, and it does not propose when slapped on the cheek to turn the other. If the Enterprise is the organ of the road and proposes to advocate a high tariff tax on everything consumed by the citizens of this State, the aforesaid citizens propose to ascertain what is the power behind the desk that is responsible for its existence.

EMPTY NOMINATIONS.

It is claimed that the Republicans will have their convention first and nominate a lot of leading silver men in order to split the silver party wide open.

We will wager a sack of new potatoes against a last year's birds nest that there is not a silver man in the State of Nevada who would think of accepting a nomination from the Republican party.

In the first place no silver man will make such a contemptible sacrifice of his principles as to accept a nomination in the hands of a party known to be the enemy of silver, and again what would such a nomination be worth? Absolutely nothing. It would be worth about as much politically as a nomination from the Greenback or Prohibition party. No one cares to run for the mere honor of the thing and we doubt if the Republicans can find men this fall patriotic enough to accept places on their ticket.

Mr. Frick, of the Carnegie Steel Company, when a witness before the committee investigating the armor-plate frauds, said that if the Government inspectors had done their duty there would have been no trouble. It is gratifying to know the Carnegie Steel Company can be honest upon compulsion. The next time it gets any work to do for the Government a regiment of regulars should be stationed at the works to see that it is honestly done.
